Tallinn's Open Spatial Data
Simple Licence Agreement

1. General provisions

1.1. The object of the current Licence Agreement's (hereinafter Agreement) object is the grant of user rights by the Tallinn City (hereinafter Licensor) to spatial data (for example Tallinn's base map) or their excerpts and copies (hereafter Data) to the Licensee.

1.2. The Licensee is a physical or legal person that uses the Data.

1.3. The Agreement's aim is for the Licensor and Licensee to agree on the conditions under which the Licensee has the right to use the Data.

1.4. The prerequisite for the Data's legal use is the Licensee's agreement to the current Agreement's conditions.

1.5. The Data copyright belongs to the Licensor and is protected by copyright law as well as international agreements concerning intellectual property. The Agreement is governed by Copyright Act and the Law of Obligation's Act.

2. Licensee's rights

2.1. By agreeing to the Agreement, the Licensee receives the right to use the Data free of charge for morally correct aims chosen by the Licensee in agreement with legislation and good practice. The Licensee may make derivatives from the Data, place the Data together with the Licensee's own products or services, use the Data for commercial or non-commercial aims and redistribute the Data.

2.2. When distributing or publishing the Data with additional values, the Licensee may augment the Agreement's conditions; however, the conditions of the current Agreement will remain in force concerning the Data received from the Licensor.

3. Licensee's obligations

3.1. When publicising or redistributing the Data, the Licensee is obligated to reference the Data source by recording the Licensor's name and database name as well as the date of the data disclosure. A reference example would be "Tallinn Base Map: Tallinn Strategic Management Office 2021".

3.2. When redistributing the Data, the Licensee is obligated to add the text of the current Agreement or refer to the Agreement's text.

3.3. The Licensee is obligated to remove the reference to the Data from the own products or services at the written request of the Licensor.

4. Responsibility

4.1. The Licensee agrees to use the Data with all the inaccuracies that the Data may contain. The Licensor is not responsible for direct or indirect damage, which may result from the Data use or the impossibility to use the Data.
